Celebrate National Library Week

All adult programs require registration online, by phone, or in person at the ASK Desk.

Preserve Freeport History
Help us preserve Freeport history. The Freeport Memorial Library, with a generous grant from Senator Brooks, purchased a planetary scanner to digitize rare books and fragile documents from collectors of historical memorabilia related to Freeport. Once scanned, items related to Freeport history may be eligible to be added to Freeport’s New York Heritage online database, where they can be used for research purposes. For more information, please phone Regina Feeney at 516-379-3274 or email rfeeney@freeportlibrary.info.

Light from Other Stars
with author Erika Swyler
THURSDAY, APRIL 23, 7 p.m.
Come join us as we discuss the 2020 Long Island Reads selection, Light from Other Stars, with the author, Erika Swyler. This coming-of-age science fiction novel tells two stories simultaneously: one centers around eleven-year-old Nedda Papas and her love of science and her dream of being an astronaut; the other is a grown-up Nedda narrating from aboard the spaceship Chawla. Erika Swyler was born and raised on Long Island. Both of her critically acclaimed novels draw heavily from her experience living in Long Island’s small towns. Coffee, tea, and water will be available. Bring your favorite dessert to share.

Family Fun: Trivia Challenge
